Seton Catholic Preparatory Administrators Attend National Blue Ribbon Schools Awards Ceremony in Washington D.C.

CHANDLER, Ariz., Nov. 18, 2017—This week, administrators from Seton Catholic Preparatory attended the 2017 National Blue Ribbon Schools awards ceremony, held on Nov. 6 and 7, at the historic Omni Shoreham in Washington D.C. In addition to presentations, networking and roundtable discussions, an awards luncheon was held where awardees went on stage to receive the National Blue Ribbon School flag and an engraved plaque as symbols of their success. Seton Catholic Administrators Attend Blue Ribbon Ceremony – Add One

In September, Seton Catholic Prep was named a 2017 National Blue Ribbon School in the “Exemplary High Performing” category by the U.S. Department of Education’s National Blue Ribbon Schools Program. U.S. Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos recognized Seton Catholic along with four other schools in Arizona to win this year’s Blue Ribbon award.

About the National Blue Ribbon Schools Program

An important part of the U.S. Department of Education, the National Blue Ribbon Schools Program recognizes outstanding public and non-public schools. In identifying several hundred outstanding schools annually, the program celebrates school excellence, turn around stories, and closing subgroup achievement gaps. The Award is both a high aspiration and a potent resource of practitioner knowledge.

About Seton Catholic Preparatory

Seton Catholic Preparatory is a diocesan, coeducational high school in Chandler, Arizona, open to students of all faiths and dedicated to academic excellence, leadership and loving service to others. For more than 60 years, Seton Catholic has served the East Valley of Phoenix as the only Catholic college preparatory high school, serving young men and women from parochial, private, charter, public and home schooling backgrounds. Seton Catholic graduates earn scholarships to and attend an array of selective colleges and universities, including state, private and Ivy League schools as well as service academies. Seton Catholic is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the Western Catholic Education Association. www.setoncatholic.org.
